Items requested for release:

I have been informed that Her Majesty's Coroner for the Falkland Islands holds the items listed below as evidence into an inquiry into the above named deceased's death. I request these items be released to me: (Please detail individual items—do not just put generic terms like "personal effects" continue on to a separate page as necessary)

I understand that the coroner may only release the items if their retention is no longer considered necessary for the purpose of the inquiry into the death of the above named deceased or any other legal proceedings.

Should the coroner be unable to release the item(s) at the present time, I understand that he or she will release the items as soon as possible thereafter.
